SBA Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL)

Funder Organization: U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA)

Program URL: https://www.sba.gov/funding-programs/disaster-assistance

Type of Fund: Loan

Target Audience or Geography: Small Business Owner / Nationwide

Estimated Time of Arrival for Public Rollout: Currently Available since January 31, 2020

Brief Program Description

Small businesses, non-profits, and owners of rental property are eligible to apply for economic injury disaster loans of up to $2 Million. Applications are submitted online through the SBA website and funds come directly from the U.S. Department of the Treasury.

Applicants can request a loan advance of up to $10,000 and it will be disbursed within three days.

Additional information is provided below under Forgiveness Terms.

Eligibility Requirements

Small businesses, sole proprietorships, independent contractors, self-employed, cooperatives, ESOP, tribal small businesses, private non-profit organizations, small agricultural cooperatives, owners of rental property, small businesses engaged in aquaculture, and nurseries (only if they derive less than 50% of their annual receipts from the production and sale of ornamental plants and other nursery products). Have 500 or fewer employees and have been in business since January 31, 2020. Must be in a disaster declaration area - all parts of Oregon have been declared.

Under section 7(b) of the Small Business Act, SBA may not provide disaster loans to agricultural enterprises. A business may be primarily an agricultural enterprise but also have a non-agricultural, separable component. The nonagricultural venture may be eligible for a business disaster loan regardless of the “primary” activity of the overall business structure or affiliated group. To be eligible, the non-agricultural venture must be a separable operation and not just part of the agricultural enterprise, with separable and distinguishable income, operations, expenses, assets, etc.
However, if more than 50% of an Applicant’s cost of goods sold (COGS) are derived from the purchase of goods from the principals’ and/or affiliates’ agricultural production, the Applicant is considered an adjunct activity of an agricultural enterprise (e.g. farming operation) and not eligible for EIDL assistance.

Please visit: https://www.sba.gov/size-standards/ to find out if your business meets SBA’s small business size standards.

Ineligibility Restrictions

Owners of unimproved real estate, agricultural enterprises (If the primary activity of the business including its affiliates is as defined in Section 18(b)(1) of the Small Business Act), neither the business nor its affiliates are eligible for disaster loan assistance, businesses involved in adult entertainment, religious organizations, gambling concerns (or business with 30% or more revenue from legal gambling), cannabis businesses, and individuals convicted during the past year of a felony committed during a riot or civil disorder or other declared disaster.

SBA disaster assistance is available for disaster losses that are not fully compensated by insurance recoveries, grants, or other sources. If a business receives other compensation in amounts that FULLY covers eligible disaster damages a business is NOT eligible (no “double-dipping”) to receive additional compensation by SBA. (Ref: SBA SOP 50 30 9 page 218)

By law, agricultural enterprises are not eligible for disaster assistance from SBA. The law makes SBA disaster loans available to homeowners, renters, non-farm businesses, and private non-profit organizations. The law defines ineligible agricultural enterprises as those businesses that are engaged in the production of food and fiber, ranching and raising of livestock, aquaculture (except for economic injury disaster loans), and all other farming and agricultural related industries.

SBA will likely decline applicants with federal loan defaults, IRS tax liens, outstanding child support payments, as well as suspended or debarred federal contractors. If declined, a business can re-apply in 6mos.

Use of Funds

Working capital for operating expenses due to temporary loss of revenue or economic injury (fixed debts, payroll, mortgage, rent, lease payments), payments on short-term debt, accounts payable, and bills; not for business expansion.

Interest Rates: 3.75% for businesses and 2.75% for non-profits.

Loan Term: Amortization: up to 30 years, determined on a case-by-case basis.

Collateral Requirements: Required for loans amounts that exceed $25,000. Applicants will not be declined solely on the basis of lack of collateral. SBA will require whatever collateral is available, which may include liens on real estate.

Loan Program Payment Deferment (if any): Up to one year payment deferral before payments need to be made.
Forgiveness Terms (if any): EIDL is not forgivable - however

Applicants for EIDL Loan can check the box on the online EIDL application to request up to $10,000 advance to provide economic relief for temporary loss of revenue they are experiencing. The Emergency EIDL advance may be forgiven and deducted from the original EIDL loan amount.

- 10K Advance must be used for the following:
- Providing paid sick leave to employees unable to work due to the direct effect of the COVID–19;
- Maintaining payroll to retain employees during business disruptions or substantial slowdowns;
- Meeting increased costs to obtain materials unavailable from the applicant’s original source due to interrupted supply chains; or
- Making rent or mortgage payments.

Personal Guarantee: Required for loans in excess of $200,000.
